MR. WILLIAM HOLBROOK

DEDICATION

"A true friend is somebody who can make us do what we can"—such a friend is Mr. William Holbrook. As an outstanding English teacher and as sponsor of both the Trucker Topics and The Editor's Choice, he has created the ideal student-teacher relationship. Steadfast devotion, sincere interest, and always a cheerful smile—these are his. Because they are, we the class of '62 fondly dedicate The 1962 Trucker to Mr. William Holbrook, our beloved teacher and friend.

FOREWORD

The 1962 Trucker staff has endeavored to capture the genuine spirit of CHS in a truer light than ever before. Through candid snaps, by complete coverage of school events, and through the manner of speaking that is "strictly Churchland", we feel sure this spirit-filled edition of The Trucker is nothing but the best!

From the time a student enters Churchland High in the ninth grade until he graduates, he is confronted by an ever-increasing array of activities which, in time, tend to develop a "full-bloodied Trucker".

As a true portrayal of those intangible qualities which are a part of us all, we, the staff, hope that this book will adequately preserve for years to come "The Spirit of CHS".

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

The completion of this year marks another year of progress at Churchland High School. Our school is a composite picture of the many activities we share. Without the co-operation and enthusiasm of everyone we would be just another school. The picture we reflect is what we call the Spirit of Churchland High School. We, the faculty, like to think that our faith in our students will bring out the very best that is in them, thus contributing to the welfare of our community, state and nation.

This annual will serve as a reminder of our confidence in today's students as citizens of tomorrow and that their deeds will perpetuate the Spirit of Churchland High School.

Best of luck
L.E.G.

Mr. Lloyd E. Gaskins
Assistant Principal

FOREIGN LANGUAGES

"Comment allez-vous?" "Quid agis?" "Hola! Que tal?"—these are some of the more familiar phrases heard from Churchland's own students of French, Latin and Spanish. With approximately 40 per cent of the student body enrolled in one of these courses, these linguists employ tape recordings, slides, records, and films as well as stimulating conversations to supplement their actual classroom study of the language. With so many enthusiastic scholars of foreign studies, CHS may yet produce another Cicero, Voltaire, or Cervantes.

Government

The fundamentals of government, our heritage from past nations and ages, the nature of the world we live in—all of these and many more are the fields of study included in the social studies program. With three years of social studies required of all students, Churchland High offers courses in geography, civics, American and Ancient History, and United States Government. All of these tend to make each student realize the value of living in a democracy and the importance of the individual in relation to the trials and tribulations of former nations and peoples.

Mr. Mancuso interrupts this discussion between Sheila Miltier and Len Benson to point out some of the fine points in American History.

Offering courses in general science, biology, chemistry, physics, and advanced science, the science program at CHS employs the most modern methods and equipment in developing the scientific talent present among the students. From the dissection of frogs and worms to the laboratory experiments with chemicals, force, and physical elements, the science department endeavors to provide training and encouragement to the future scientists and researchers that will help make the moon our next door neighbor and our everyday life one big delight of mechanical ease.

English IV

From learning the basic fundamentals of English grammar to the more advanced literature of senior English, every Trucker is confronted by a varied and all-inclusive program of English that tends to promote efficiency in his own native language. Through creative writing, book reports, memorization of literature masterpieces, classroom discussions, grammar and study of the many types of literature, all students encounter an extensive amount of knowledge in this field. Though familiar to all of us, English may seem foreign at times—especially to the teachers who have to grade all of those written "masterpieces" handed in to them daily!!!!

MATHEMATICS

Offering courses in general math, algebra, plane and solid geometry, trigonometry and college algebra, the mathematics department tries hard to develop and encourage all of those "budding Einsteins" at CHS. With such a variety of interesting subjects, many students find that mathematics can be a challenging field of study. FINE ARTS

Probably the most noticeable group of teaching results around school are those that are displayed by the band, choral, and art departments. From the attractive bulletin boards, display cases, and art work to the vocal and instrumental music presented by the chorus and band in their programs and concerts, the fine arts classes strive to develop the potential Rembrandts, Sousas, and Carusos within our student body. These programs, indeed, offer training and fun as well as a great deal of personal satisfaction.

BUSINESS EDUCATION

Q-W-E-R-T-Y—no, this is no new word but merely a part of learning to type. With such other subjects as shorthand, bookkeeping, general business, and clerical practice, the business department offers a varied program of courses designed to prepare students for careers in the business world. A vital part of the business department are the three on-the-job courses of D. E., I. C. T., and V. O. T. whereby students supplement classroom teaching with actual training in local business firms. CHS, indeed, provides much training and education of our future business tycoons.

MANUAL ARTS

Those delicious smells that sometimes circulate through the halls come from no other place than the home economics department where the girls learn the fundamentals of cooking, homemaking, and family living. In the opposite end of the building and from the classes under the stadium, boys learn to make numerous articles of wood and metal, and as such they are given the opportunity to develop their manual skills through actual experience. Mechanical Drawing, too, helps develop proficiency in mental and manual training by making boys to strive for perfection and satisfaction in creating an idea with pencil, ruler, and T-square.

As part of their metal shop work, Lonnie St. Pierre and Tommy Swindell work at perfecting their skills in foundry and pattern work.

Where would we all be without our guidance program to direct us through high school in the correct program of study? Or the hot lunches prepared by the cafeteria staff? Or the store of knowledge available in our school library? Or the many incidental services in the office that make CHS an efficiently-run school? Or the teaching available through the special education program? These are all services that most of us take for granted, but each has added much to the maintenance and extension of the Spirit of CHS.

THE CLASS OF '62

The Class of '62 began its senior year with a burst of enthusiasm and anticipation! It was now our turn to lead in carrying on the spirit of Churchland High School. The busy year was filled with many activities, which involved both fun and hard work.

In September we elected Tommy, Mike, Sue, Roger, Kay and Bubba as our class officers, and Miss VanDyck as sponsor. They led us through a prosperous and rewarding year, a year long to be remembered.

The arrival of rings marked the beginning of many memorable events. The Senior Class Play followed, and mid-term exams completed the first Semester. The Junior-Senior prom, the class banquet, Baccalaureate, and, of course, Graduation were the highlights of our final Semester.

With graduation came the realization that our years at CHS had drawn to a close; that all we had shared together here would soon be only memories. But for these wonderful memories we were thankful and proud that we were a part of the spirit of Churchland High School.

These past twelve years had produced a really "TUFF" class!

Seniors Carry On Spirit

Of C. H. S.

On September 11 the Senior Class of 1962 began its final year at Churchland High. This was to be our year—a year filled with fun, hard work and a constant whirl of activities. It was our turn to carry on the spirit of Churchland High.

The year began with a traditional pep rally and the first football game in the new stadium. A few days later our rings arrived, sending us into a flurry of excitement. At last we really felt like seniors!

During the last week of September we elected Tommy as our president, made plans for the coming year and ordered our caps and gowns.

Homecoming Festivities Prove To

Be Best Ever

The busy weeks flew by, and soon it was time for our annual Homecoming. The football team, led by co-captains Donnie and Tommy chose Susan, Meredith, Peggy, Anita, Sharon, and Carol to be the senior members of the court. At halftime, Anita was crowned as queen of the night's festivities.

Following Homecoming our first senior assembly got us back into the swing of things. Some of us buckled down to study for college boards while others prepared for various fields of endeavor in the business world.

How quickly the time was flying by!

"The Great Big Doorstop"
Presented by Senior Class

Our first big money making project was the senior class play, held the first week in December. "The Great Big Doorstep" with Tempie and Bill in the leading roles proved to be a great success, and it greatly increased the class treasury. The performance gave many of our classmates a chance to gain acting experience as well as to use other talents backstage.

The holiday spirit began early with the Crystal Classic which this year for the first time honored the senior class. We then eagerly looked forward to Christmas vacation, but managed to keep busy with the first basketball games of the season and our ever present school work.

Senior Year Ends With

Whirl of Activities

Mid-term exams loomed ahead, and after weeks of studying we were ready to settle down and enjoy our few remaining months at C.H.S.

May finally arrived, and with it the last whirl of senior activities. The Junior-Senior proved a perfect fulfillment of all we dreamed our last prom would be. At our senior class banquet we heard the class prophecy and the last will and testament. Then with exams behind us, we proudly donned our caps and gowns for the Baccalaureate service. As graduation day dawned, and we received our diplomas, we realized that as seniors our year had reached its climax. But even so, we had the spirit of Churchland High to carry with us forever.

THE CLASS OF '63

The Class of '63 began its year with the realization that each one would play an even greater role in the furthering of the spirit of Churchland High School. So many new subjects and an ever-increasing interest in extra-curricular activities made this third year of high school begin on a note of great expectancy and intense appeal.

To lead the junior class through its best year yet, the students chose Bob as president, Bobby as vice-president, Diane as secretary, Mary Mac as treasurer, Jeff as sergeant-at-arms, and Miss Rountree as class sponsor. Under the guidance and supervision of these able leaders, the class treasury grew until it was large enough to finance the Junior-Senior prom, the major project of the junior class and the highlight of the school year. The prom was the perfect climax to a year that saw the class await their senior year.

One final event—the ordering of class rings—made all the class eager for September to arrive when these "jolly" juniors would at last find themselves sober seniors.

THE CLASS OF '64

A year older and "much" wiser, the class of '64 returned to C.H.S. as sophomores. This year found them feeling really at home, anxious to begin their second year of high school life.

Having chosen Dick, Dickie, Sue Ann, Cheryl, and Tommy as class officers and Mr. Harlow as sponsor, the class settled down to a busy year of study and participation in more activities than ever before. Sports, clubs and organizations filled all spare time from school work. There was hardly a moment when school and its many activities were not foremost with all members of the class.

With spring and the closing of the school year, the class eagerly awaited their Freshman-Sophomore prom. Class dues of $3.00 and much planning and hard work made this dance a colorful and exciting affair.

The Sophomore class really had turned out to be a "swinging" class that eagerly anticipated its Junior year.

Dickie Balderson, Mr. Harlow, Sue Ann Swanson, Tommy Dickens, Cheryl Hitchings, and Dick Weatherford check to see that class dues will keep them "out of the red."

THE CLASS OF '65

The largest class ever to enter Churchland High School became a part of the student body in September. This Freshman class, all 330 of them, soon overcame whatever fears they may have had of high school life, and learned to play their part as C.H.S. Truckers. Carrying trays and polishing a few rings for upperclassmen helped make these "new arrivals" feel right at home!

As their officers, the class chose Jimmy —president, Milly—vice-president, Linnea—secretary, Barbara—treasurer, and Mel—sergeant-at-arms.

The many new school subjects and extra-curricular activities made the year pass quickly. As a climax, the Freshman worked closely with the Sophomore class, and gave both time and effort in planning a successful Freshman-Sophomore Prom.

The class of '65 looked back happily on this, their first year at C.H.S., as a rewarding and wonderful one, and these "frisky" freshmen looked forward to their future years as a part of the spirit of Churchland High School.

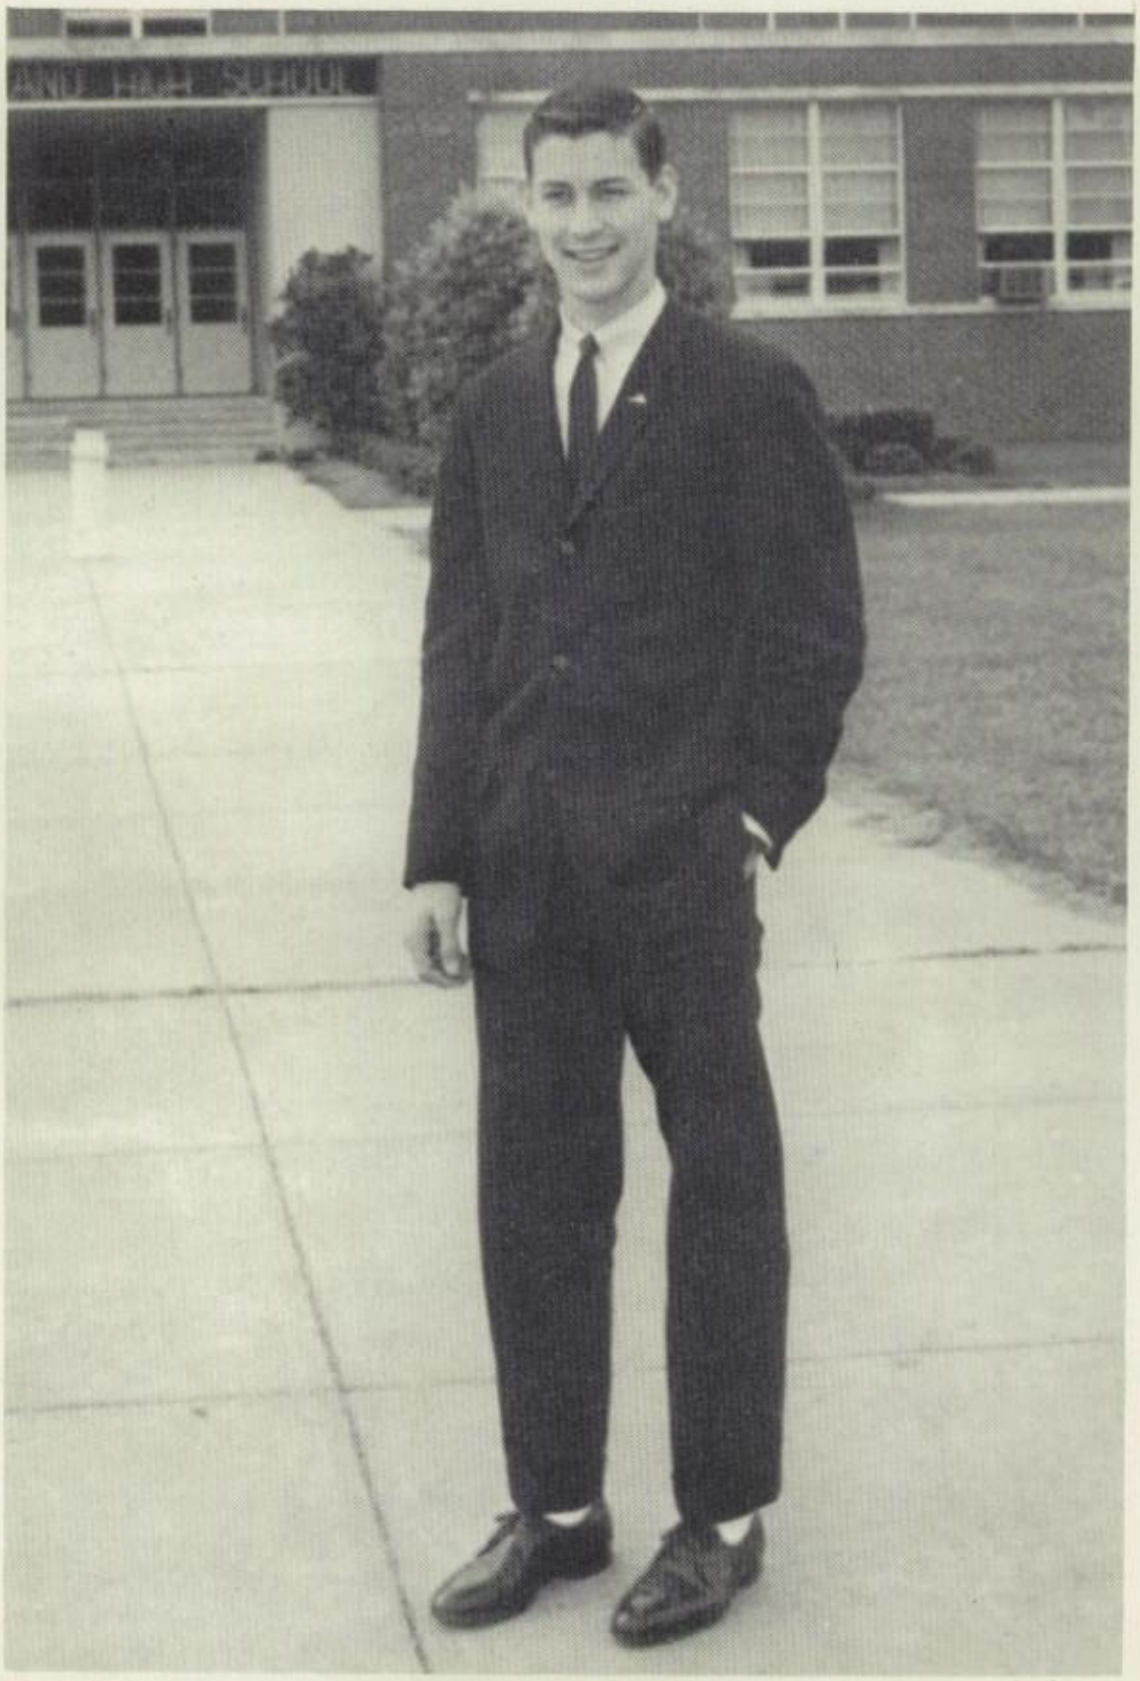
STUDENT COOPERATIVE ASSOCIATION



John Dorson, President
Student Co-operative Association

The main project of the Student Co-operative Association this year was organizing and maintaining an honor system at CHS. Council activities also included the annual Homecoming festivities, the Crystal Classic, and Bermuda Day.

Beginning its second year, the School Spirit Committee did much to create spirit at all athletic contests as well as to sponsor Quiet Day and to provide buses for these games.

The needy were provided with food at Thanksgiving and Christmas through the co-operation of the students under the direction of the Welfare Committee.

The council through its Scholarship Committee once again awarded scholastic pins to outstanding members of the student body.

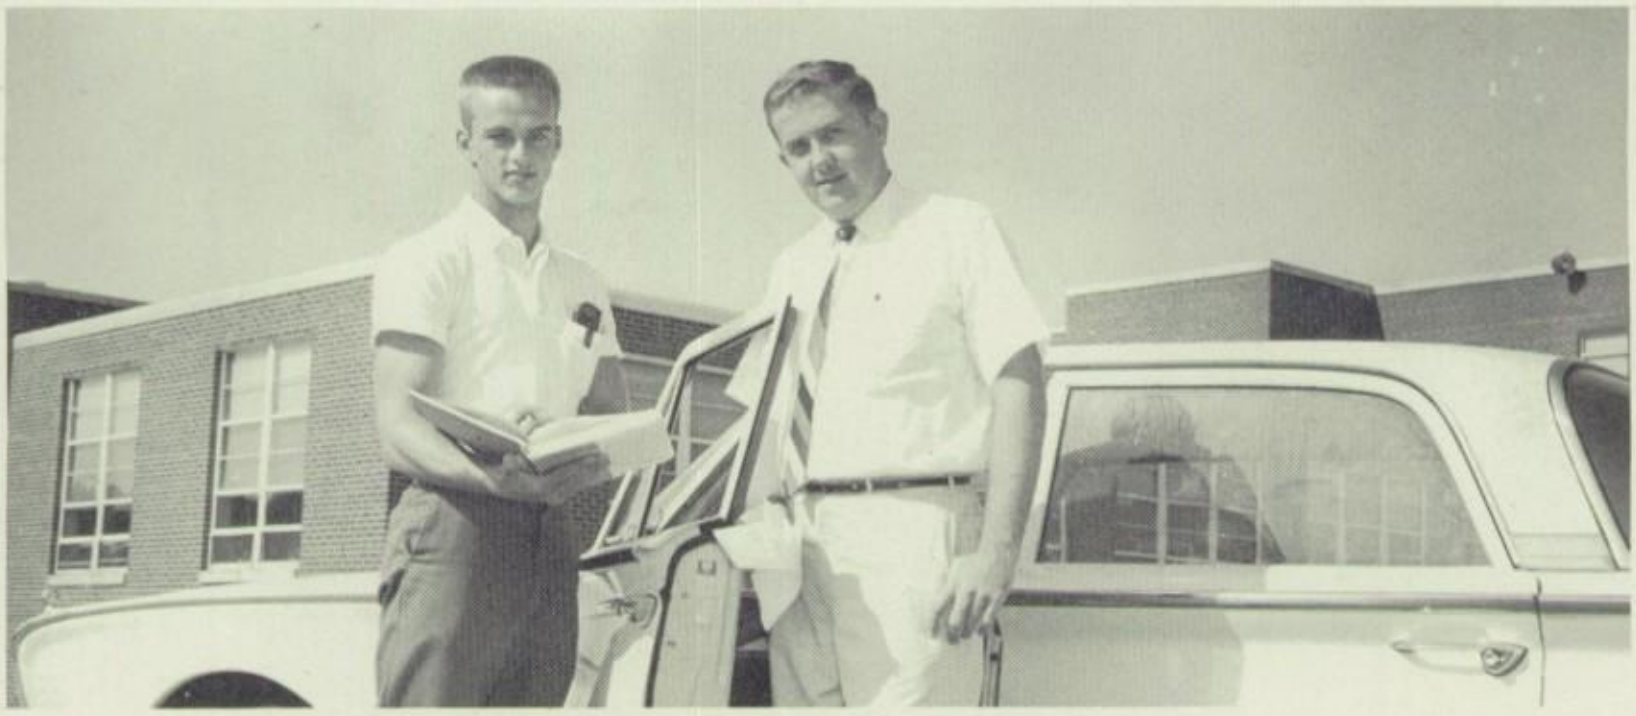
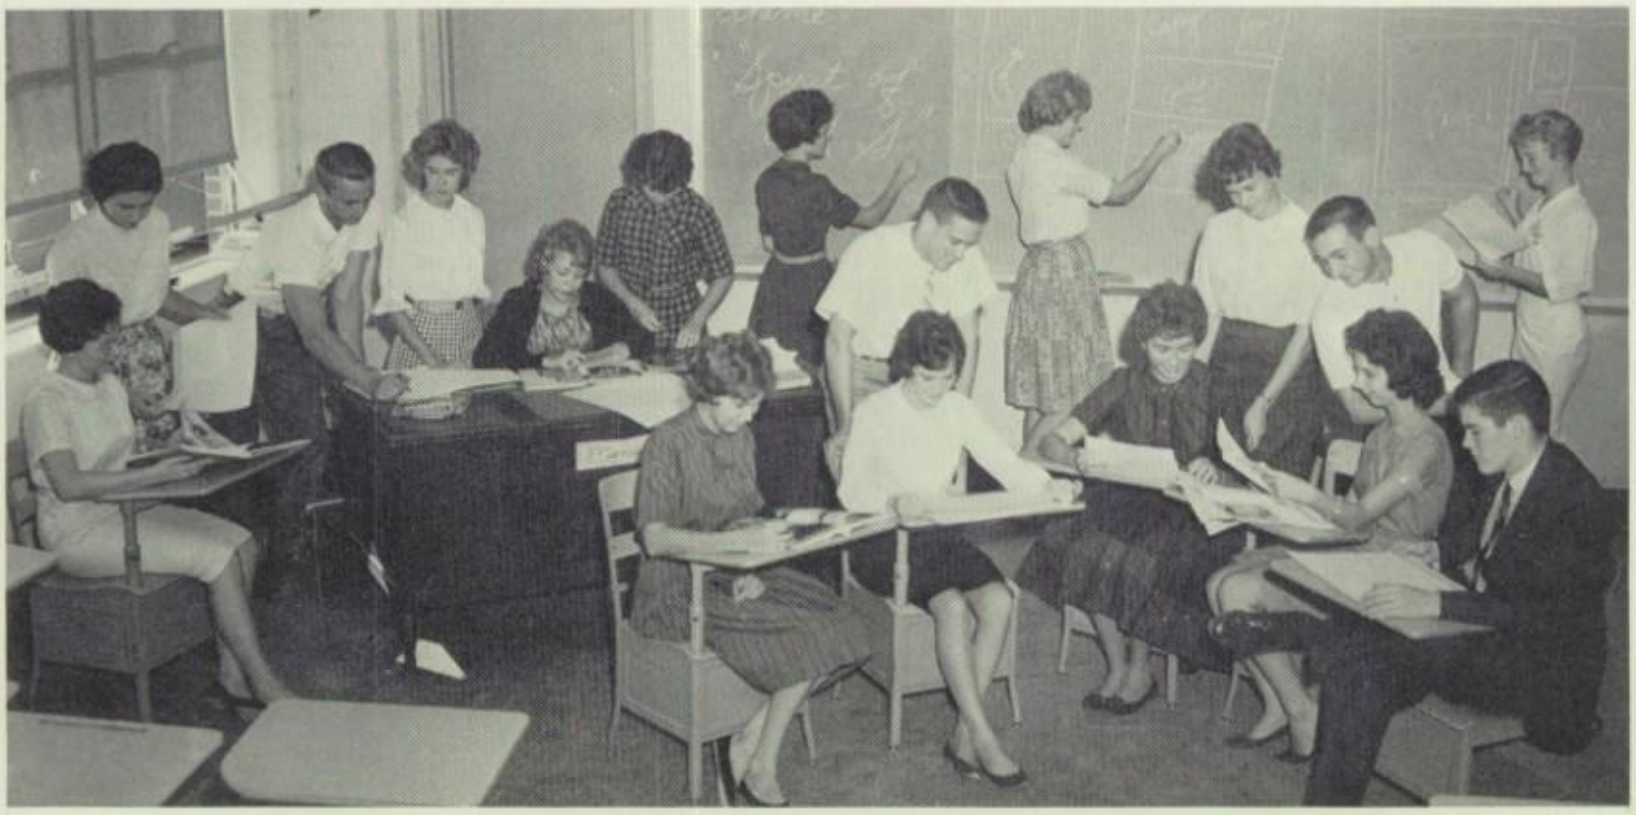
Frayed nerves—frantic effort—that last minute rush—permanent confusion! All of these easily describe the annual staff from September to June and even into the summer months. By collecting ads, taking pictures, writing copy, selling subscriptions, meeting deadlines, and laying out and arranging pages, the staff members of The Trucker are kept "on the go" with what seems to be an endless amount of work.

Led by tri-editors Pat, Susan and Barbara, the staff put in many weary hours to present as accurate picture of life throughout the year at Churchland High, and they have tried to put into print that quality familiar to every Trucker—the spirit of C.H.S.



Pausing a moment for the photographer, Tommy Warren—business manager, and Mr. Moore—advisor, are seen as they get set to go out on one of their many ad collecting trips.



In a typical scene in room 116 the entire annual staff is "caught in the act" of planning and discussing ideas for the best yearbook ever—The 1962 Trucker.

As head typist for the yearbook staff, Judy Engel put in many hours of hard work in giving her fingers much "exercise".

Standing at left, Ellen Roberts— copy editor, and Charlotte Major—organizations editor, seem to be engrossed in some editorial problem while Donnie Taylor—sports editor, and Beverly Cuthriell—faculty editor, at right, must have something very funny to laugh at! (How about letting us in on the joke, Bev?) Likewise, Flossie Bishop—classes editor, and Sue Dowell—features editor, seemed amused at some of the ideas of the annual. Could they be thinking about the yearbook—or about something else perhaps???

Staff workers Mike Miles, Mary Ann Sherrill, Michele Loizzi, Susan Benton, Bob Weatherford and Mary Mac Blanchard look extremely involved in trying to find new ideas for this year's annual. You can almost hear the little wheels turning, can't you?

EDITOR'S CHOICE

STAFF

Seated: Brenda Riddleberger, Arleen Cohen, Marty Baugher, Mary Gompf, Bonnie Hall, Sherry Kauffman, Betsy Hines, Lorraine Hibbs. Standing: Boyd Pace, Gloria Prichard, Betty Reeser, Bonnie Talmadge, Virginia Ellis, Lois Helmbold, Marie Campen, Chris Coggins, Michele Loizzi, Ann Haas, Gayle Atwood, Diane Finnigan, Nancy Bower.

Mary Gompf
Editor-in-Chief

Beginning its second year of publication, the Editor's Choice once again strived to give recognition to students talented in the literary field.

The staff, greatly enlarged this year, worked many hours after school gathering short stories, poems, and essays for the two editions published during the year.

Under the guidance of Mr. Holbrook, many selections were read and reviewed by the editor and staff members. It was only after much deliberation that final choices were made. The Editor's Choice offered students at C.H.S. the opportunity needed to display their literary talent.

TRUCKER TOPICS

"Extra! Extra! Read all about it!" Thus cried the Trucker Topics staff, as the 1962 subscription drive got underway.

Starting the year with little knowledge of journalism, the reporters quickly learned tricks of the trade. Guided by Mr. Holbrook, they gained first hand experience with newspaper production. Headlines, deadlines, and bylines soon became familiar terms.

The staff of thirty-six was the largest ever, which prompted Mr. Holbrook to set up a new editing system. Two alternating sets of editors were selected, thus dividing the responsibility of managership. However it was only through the united efforts of all staff members that the Trucker Topics successfully reported the news, informing and entertaining the student body.

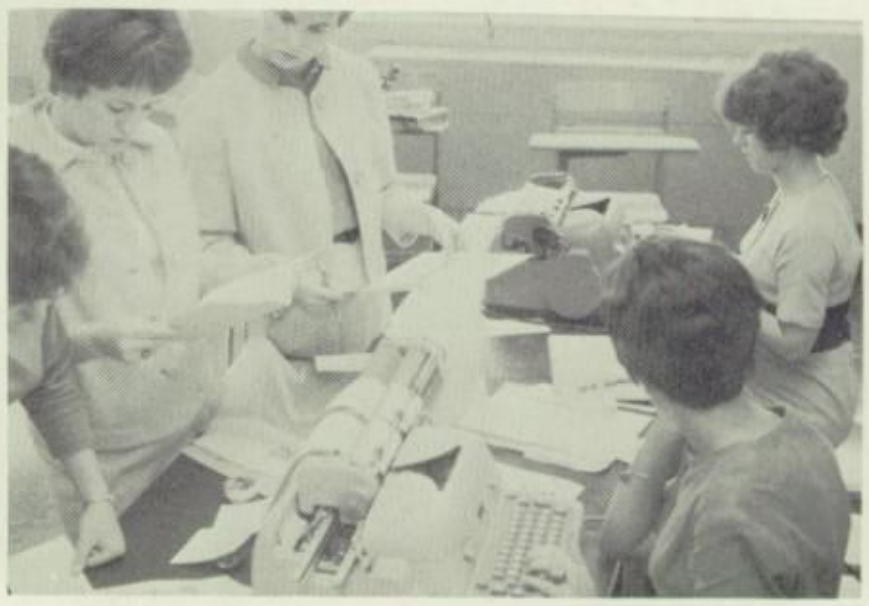
Our quartet of editors, Judy Hester, Charlotte Major, Glenda Bourne, and Flossie Bishop, each seem deeply engrossed in planning to make their next issue the best yet. These hard-working girls guided the entire staff into making the Trucker Topics a vital and familiar part of the CHS scene.

As business manager for the Trucker Topics, Sidney Phelps points and discussed new ads with Mr. Holbrook, the advisor for this prize-winning publication.

Laying out the dummy for the newspaper, Cheryl Dale, Joanne Smith and Betsy Sledge put in many hours of work to meet those ever-present deadlines!



Peggy O'Dell, Sandra McLauchlin and Nickii Reed check copy as Helen Benham and Sharon Shockley busily type up some of the many articles that must be gotten ready for that next issue.

"Music, music, everywhere"—This might well be said of the CHS band as they practice and give performances throughout the school year. From the early morning sessions till the after-school sectional rehearsals, the band members constantly strive to present only the best in band music.

In addition to performing at all football games, the band presented its Christmas concert with the chorus, participated in the All-State Band, made a tour, and gave its spring concert.

As such, the band has done much to foster school spirit and to make our school a vital part of the community.

Warren Channel, student director and Mr. Mitchell, director

MAJORETTES

HEAD MAJORETTE
Evelyn Wilkins

At the head of any band are the majorettes, and as such, the CHS band proudly displays its seven "twirlers" at all of its marching performances. The Trucker majorettes, after many hours of practice, give to the marching band the touch of beauty that adds the visual enjoyment for the musical entertainment.

Under the direction of head majorette "Toonie" Wilkins, the majorettes present many novel and interesting maneuvers.

Hard work, particularly during the summer and in the fall, makes the Churchland High majorette squad a welcome and integral part of the school's activities.

MIXED CHORUS

"Look at all the boys!" was the comment made by the girls in Mixed Chorus on the first day of school. And they were right! With the largest number of tenors and basses in its history, the chorus started its year in high spirits. This enthusiasm was clearly seen as the group presented its annual Christmas concert with the band.

The next big event for the chorus was the vocal festival held in March. Much hard work and many rehearsals prepared the group for this event and for its eighth annual Spring Concert. The success of all these affairs proved that CHS really has a "singing, swinging group".

The Glee Club offers an opportunity for girls with little chorus experience to gain a basic understanding of music. With emphasis placed on theory and sight singing, the group goes far in preparing its members for Mixed Chorus.

During this year, the girls performed in the Christmas and Spring Concerts, and several members auditioned for All-State Chorus. Each of these activities enabled the group to gain more experience and to progress in its study of musical techniques.

Members agree that singing is fun, but it also requires hard work and much study.

TRIPLE TRIP, BOYS' GLEE CLUB

Chosen for their talent, knowledge of music, and willingness to work, again this year, The Triple Trio donned their white blazers and blended their voices to become a familiar part of the CHS scene. Performing at many civic and community activities, these nine girls gained many favorable comments for themselves and the school. The group is as follows: Lynn Dunning, Helen Benham, Kay Bergh, Janet Arculin, Harriet Moran, Betsy Sledge, Gayle Atwood, Judy Hester, Betty Darden, Susan Benton—acc.

Those big booming voices heard in the chorus room belong to the members of the Boys' Glee Club, the newest choral addition to CHS. This group is strictly extra-curricular, and it does all rehearsing either before or after school. In previous years, this glee club has been a favorite at concerts and assemblies, and this year's group greatly advanced this tradition. The members are as follows: First row: Thearl Wooten, Carl Betterton, Connie Bryant —accom., Scott Frank, Ollie Creekmore. Second row: Bill Williams, Bobby Conway—mgr., John Martin, Kenny Atkinson, Harry Baker, Beegie Harman, Don Canterbury. Third row: Roger Burbage, Joe Lassiter, Harry Barnes, Jimmy McRae, Tommy Robinson, Charles Sheets.

EIGHTH GRADE CHORUS

By starting with the eighth grade, Mrs. Blake begins scouting early for future Mixed Chorus members. This group, which practices sixth period each day, studies basic music skills, along with learning to read and interpret choral numbers. As these eighth graders reach high school, they are well-prepared for the fun and hard work of choral singing.

Though small in its membership this year, The Science Club again had as its primary purpose the increase and promotion of an interest among the students; the numerous science courses offered at CHS easily help further the club's purpose.

The leading project of this year's club was centered around the cause of corrosion and what steps could be taken to help prevent this process. After much study, the club entered its finding in the Tidewater Science Fair at the College of William and Mary.

As its second project, the club conducted its own science fair for the area schools. Much interest was evidenced by the outstanding projects entered and by the many students participating.

LIBRARY STAFF

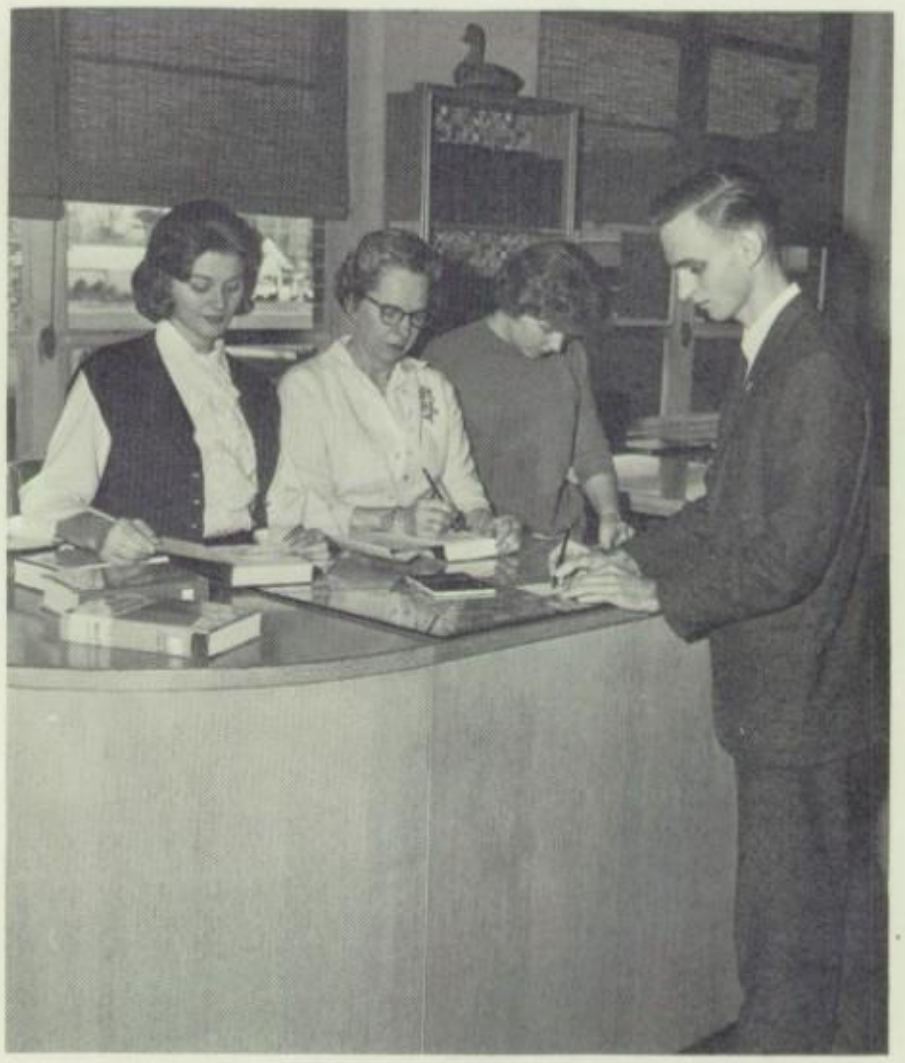
"The fiction books are over there!"

"Your book is overdue; the fine will be six cents!"

"Miss Gibbs will help you find that!"

All of the above are just a few of many comments to be overheard from these aspiring librarians. Organized to offer a limited amount of training in the many phases of library work, these student librarians, under the guidance of Miss Gibbs, learn some of the trials and tribulations that confront a librarian every day.

Dating books, assisting students, and helping to make the library an attractive and readily available information center keep these future librarians busy!



Checking in books occupies much of the time of librarians Evelyn Forrest, Miss Gibbs, Bunny Storr, Robert Moyers.

Armed with their trusty little spatulas and rolling pins, and attired in "typical homemaker fashion," the new initiates of the F.H.A. Club were presented to "Trucker Society."

In beginning a year filled with a multitude of activities, the club conducted a bake sale, the annual toy pick-up and repair project in December, and enlivened the holidays with a Christmas party.

As a Valentine project, the future homemakers gave a party for children in the hospital.

By participating in programs and activities centered around homemaking and home-care, these girls began preparing themselves for the future.

The large membership of the F. T. A. this year sparked enthusiasm which started the year with a real "bang". With its first big project of selling pompoms at Homecoming, the treasury increased and as such the club was able to plan many extra activities.

Carrying their rulers and textbooks, several members travelled to the elementary school for practice teaching. Ushering at open house, the major service project of the year, was followed by the annual Faculty Appreciation Tea in November.

Spring activities were climaxed by the Mother-Daughter Banquet, which offered the club an opportunity to present a lucky senior with the F. T. A. scholarship.

From the quantity and the quality of the club's membership, and by the intense interest generated by these young educators, teacher prospects for the future indeed seem bright!

Bundled up and ready to "take off" for the FTA convention in Richmond are Terry Wilson, Ellen Roberts, Marty Baugher, and Miss Beale before setting out to the big city!

Working furiously to help make their Teacher Appreciation Tea a success, Betty Reaser, Bonnie Talmage and Judy Engle get another bowl of punch ready for that hungry pack of teachers!

DISTRIBUTIVE EDUCATION

In the fall of 1961 the Distributive Education Club set about the work of fulfilling its plans for the school year. In addition to learning more about the world of business and retailing, the members carried out a number of projects which contributed much to the spirit at CHS. Christmas spirit was heightened by homeroom participation in the DE Christmas door decoration contest; spirit was again aroused by the annual spring dance. A spring fashion show and a tree dedicated to the memory of Mrs. Noble Moore were also among the year's projects.

Formerly known as the D. O. Club, the I. C. T. Club began its year with new ideas and ideals. With the purpose of developing character, leadership, fellowship, craftsmanship, and citizenship before them, members set out to make this year the best the club had ever had.

The main project planned for the year was the Employer-Employee Banquet. This offered an opportunity for workers to get together "off the job", and it proved to be a highlight of the year. With this and other activities and by classroom instruction, the members successfully advanced in their chosen professions.

FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS OF AMERICA

As future leaders in the business world of tomorrow, our F.B.L.A. had a full schedule of activity this year. At Christmas they sold Christmas ornaments and gathered a basket of food for a needy family.

Participating in school activities, the F.B.L.A. entered the bulletin board contest and the spelling bee.

Not only active in Churchland, the F.B.L.A. participated in the Mr. & Miss F.B.L.A. contest at the convention at William and Mary, and also put up candidates for state offices.

As all clubs need funds, the C.H.S. business leaders had a rummage sale, bake sale, and candy sale to support their activities for the year.

To promote better leaders for the business world of tomorrow as its purpose, the F.B.L.A., by active membership and monthly projects, created an organization with much to offer its members.

The girls' Monogram Club, being closely related to the boys' Varsity "C" Club, is made up of girls who have won a scholastic letter for some phase of athletic achievement. The purpose of the club is to promote good sportsmanship at CHS.

They began the year with the initiation of new members — a day of fun for all! A "Turkey Trot" held during Thanksgiving holidays helped to boost the club's treasury considerably.

To complete the yearly activities, the club sponsored the annual student-faculty basketball game which provided an exciting and hilarious night of entertainment for all even though afterwards there were a few complaints of sore muscles and aching backs!

VARSITY C

The Varsity "C" Club has as its purpose to recognize outstanding athletic achievement and sportsmanship displayed by the boys at CHS. An eventful happening of the year was the initiation of new members, which, to say the least, proved quite memorable.

Each year the boys take charge of the sale of concessions at all home basketball games and in this manner they raise their needed funds.

Another featured event of the year was the annual spring outing which the boys planned and carried out for themselves and their dates.

These "varsity men", by giving their best in the various athletic contests of the school, did much to promote and maintain the spirit and enthusiasm of Churchland High students.

The promotion of theater arts in high school is the goal of Thespian Troupe 1546, Churchland's outstanding dramatic club. During the school year this organization presented its annual spring production, Blithe Spirit by Noel Coward, and they entered a play in competition with other schools. Through participation in these plays and attendance at area theater productions, club members were able to learn more about professional careers in dramatic arts.

Along with its other activities, the thespians p l a n n e d t o published a newspaper, announcing events and activities of interest to its members. With the successful completion of these projects, the club climaxed another busy year.

PIERETTE CLUB

"To promote charm among senior girls"—With this as its purpose, the Pierette Club began another successful year with Miss Shine as its new sponsor. For the first time, the club sponsored service projects which included visiting the Home for the Aged and the children in the hospital at various times during the year. Through several money-making projects, the club was once again able to give its annual Christmas formal. This year the dance was held at the Planter's Club with the music of Jay Ward and the Debonairs.

"Going, going, gone! Sold to the young lady in blue!" This was the cry of an enthusiastic member of the hard-working Truckers Hi-Y at their Slave Sale in November. This temporary state of chaos at the YMCA was but one of the money-making projects which netted the club funds. This activity, along with selling candy and antenna flags, boosted the club's treasury.

To the delight of the girls at CHS, the boys began the practice of dressing up in coats and ties one day a week.

These and other worthwhile projects furthered their purpose of "To create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school and community, high standards of Christian character."

Once again, the big project of the Churchland Tri-Hi-Y was the "Miss Churchland" contest, held, for the first time, in February. This proved to be a tremendous success as did the other projects sponsored by the club throughout the year. A hay ride helped to increase the treasury and to finance several service projects. Clothes were collected for the needy and visits were planned to the convalescent home, thereby giving members the opportunity to serve others.

A social during the Christmas holidays with former members offered an opportunity to renew old acquaintances and make ones.

TRUCKERS TRI-HI-Y

With the founding of the new Succedo Tri-Hy-Y, the Truckers Tri-Hi-Y helped to extend the meaning and purpose of the club. During the course of the year, members contributed to food drives, visited the Manning Convalescent Home, and gave books to Portsmouth General Hospital.

At the boys vs. girls basketball game, the club offered a "really rocking" evening of fun for all who saw it or took part.

Each week, in keeping with its platform of clean speech, clean sportsmanship, clean scholarship, and clean living, the Truckers Tri-Hi-Y presented for the entire student body a worthwhile "Thought for the Week" which has become a familiar part of the school.

Succedo Tri-Hi-Y is the bright new addition to school-affiliated activities. Formed from Truckers Tri-Hi-Y, Succedo began its year with ten charter members and many exciting projects.

Donations to the Joy Fund and aid given to needy families instilled in the members a true spirit of Christmas giving. Willingness to help others was also shown through the club's World Service donation and the YMCA membership given to a deserving young person.

Succedo quickly adjusted itself to youth activities, and, led by its junior president, completed its first year with great success.

CEM TRI-HI-Y

Good times at Blue Ridge are remembered by many of the CEM Tri-Hi-Y girls who attended the district conference last summer.

This outstanding club of last year had full charge of the annual Snowball Dance held at Suburban Country Club at Christmas time, and sponsored an Easter Hop during the spring holidays.

CEM has done its good deeds for the year by giving money to the Portsmouth Museum and food to an unfortunate family at Christmas.

These girls had a blast at their New Years Eve "coke party" and when they went ice skating with Webb Tri-Hi-Y.

Keep up the good work, girls!

Webb Tri-Hi-Y opened its second year with a "splash" by skillfully executing its theme of "By the Sea" on its Homecoming float. During the year the club fulfilled its goal of service to others by contributing money to UNICEF at Halloween, by providing Thanksgiving dinner for a family, and by presenting the children in the hospital with toys at Christmas.

The members also enjoyed many interesting programs such as the one by Chaplain O'Dell on the "Spirit of Christmas". Another one was the discussion on "Dating and Going Steady". By building good fellowship with other clubs, Webb Tri-Hi-Y ended its year with a feeling of a year well-spent.

BIBLE CLUB

Throughout the school year the members of the Bible Club paused every morning to conduct daily devotionals and to gain spiritual inspiration.

With the worthwhile goal of winning others to Christ, the Bible Club commenced activities for this year by placing a scriptural calendar in the hall. Preparing posters to help make CHS students more aware of the necessity of the spiritual develpment is another duty performed by this organization.

After sponsoring a handicapped child, the members set out to supply the Norfolk County and Portsmouth jails with wholesome literature and worthwhile pastimes. By participating in Bible quiz competition with other area clubs, through the "Teens for Christ" program, these energetic young people strove to make their environment a more wholesome place in which to live.

"Only one life, 'twill soon be past;
Only what's done for Christ will last."

As one of their major projects of the year, the Bible Club maintained a "calendar" of Biblical sayings that could serve as guides for everyday living. Pausing to read the saying for the day, Dorcas Trembley, Don Neal, Jimmy Carr, Barbara Manning, and Carolyn Neal present a typical scene in the halls of CHS.

To combine scholarship, leadership, character, and service, the members of the National Honor Society have endeavored to maintain these four purposes by constantly keeping them foremost in their thoughts.

To remind the students of the need for these standards in later life, the society sponsored the Career Day assembly, and speakers from all fields of work and service spoke to the students on the qualifications and needs of their particular fields.

To honor those deserving students and to make their parents aware of their achievements, the society sent out Honor Roll letters to the parents of those students, who maintained an honor roll average at mid-term, commending both the student and his parents for their achievements.

To complete the year the society held an Installation Tea, which took place after the tapping of new members. This served as an installation for the new members and a farewell gathering for the old ones.

"GREAT BIG DOORSTEP" PROVES GREAT BIG SUCCESS

"The Great Big Doorstep" is the adventures of a "Cajun" family after finding the steps of a destroyed plantation which were washed up by the Mississippi River.

Through the efforts of the Commodore and Mrs. Crochet, the family stays together through many difficulties.

The Cajun dialect of the characters displayed by the talented members of the cast, and added to the comical plot of the play, helped to make it in the words of the director, Mr. Gwin, "The best play that I have directed at Churchland High School."

The play not only enabled some members of the Senior Class to display their acting abilities and to learn about backstage work, but it helped greatly in improving the spirit of C.H.S.

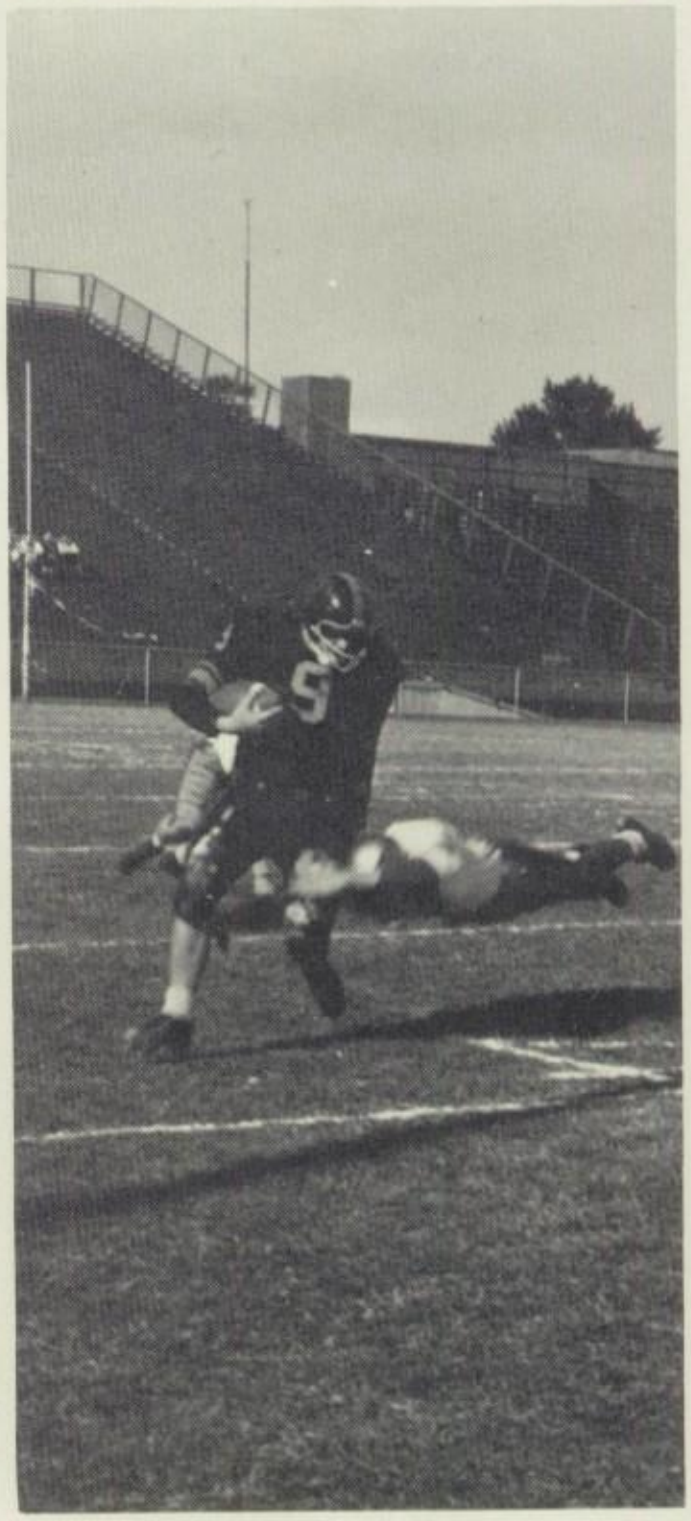
Rising tension of the game is reflected in the faces of resting players George Norton, Bob Weatherford, Artie Lester, Joe Armstrong, Charles Masengill, and Robert Smith.

Back Jody Bew for Churchland veers sharply in a valiant effort to avoid Great Bridge tackler Henry Barefoot.

Skelly Cummins, Jack Coopedge, Joe Armstrong, and James McRae hustle onto the field for their pre-game warm-up.

In the Granby game Jody Bew carries the ball for needed gain.



Always rated as underdogs with an injury-riddled and greatly inexperienced team, Churchland posted only a 1-9 record for the season. However, many bright spots and outstanding individual performances were evident in many of the games. In the game with Deep Creek Nelson Butler ran for a 65 yard touchdown, and a safety credited to the defensive line gave Churchland a 9-0 lead at halftime. The second half saw the hornets snatch this potential win from the Truckers in the final two minutes of the contest; the score turned out to be 14-9.

In the Great Bridge game the Wildcats were forced to take to the air because the stubborn defensive line of the Truckers held their ground attack to less yardage than any team had been able to accomplish previously.

In the game with our arch-rivals Wilson, the Truckers, after driving some 80 yards to the Wilson two yard line, were not able to go over for the score.

Churchland Defense Offers Many Bright Performances During Season

Kenny Curry closes in "for the kill" on Great Bridge player.

Charles Sheets and Bob Weatherford smother Deep Creek's Wally Smith.

At Granby's homecoming Gary Angel scored from the four yard line and he had a 45 yard touchdown called back.

The highlight of the season turned out to be the resounding defeat the Truckers inflicted on Suffolk in their traditional Peanut Bowl. With touchdowns by Jody Bew and Gary Angel the figures in black rolled up a final score of 34-26. This did much to boost CHS morale.

The best game of the season insofar as teamwork was involved was with South Norfolk. In this game the Truckers really displayed what team effort, spirit, and experience could do. Even Oscar Smith's coach applauded the team's vast improvement. If the season had only been a little longer, there is no telling what this improvement could have done for the won-loss record.

Junior Varsity Posts Season Record of 3-5

The Baby Truckers ended the gridiron season with a 3-5 record. Starting their season with three wins and with mixed results afterwards, they gave their best to uphold the athletic traditions of the school.

Following wins in their opening games, the Churchland JV's found their last five games a little more difficult. Losing games to Great Bridge and Norview by one touchdown and two touchdowns respectively, the JV eleven narrowly missed posting a winning season.

Because excellent performances were displayed by Jack Worsham, Mel Kunkle, Gary Lawson, and Tommy Dickens in the backfield, and George Constantinides, Ray Austin, and Bill Waldo in the line, the Varsity Truckers can expect a wealth of talent from these and other players on the team.

Contrary to popular opinion, being a cheerleader isn't all fun and glamour. This year our vivacious eleven outdid themselves. Every week during the summer they practiced for two hours on Wednesday and Saturday—There were many sore muscles for the new members of the squad.

The biggest thing during school besides cheering for the games was sign painting and slogan making. Every week new signs were made and booster tags were distributed to the student body.

The cheerleaders this year have been "instruments of spirit." They, with their constant encouragement, have truly been an inspiration to the boys on the teams as well as to the other students in the school.

Shades of the "'20's"! Our cheerleaders "roll out the welcome" for the Old Grads.

Best of luck to a sweet guy. Always remember gym class. Have a terrific summer. Love, Marilyn Playing in a greatly improved league, the Trucker quintet found stiff competition with every team on their schedule. Led by captain Joe Corprew and with the help of playmaker Jody Bew and returning lettermen Kenton Cobb and Bob Weatherford, the team dropped several near victories by close margins. The concerted group effort of this year's basketball team will add greatly to the development of next year's players. The obvious determination of these boys did much to encourage the fostering of the spirit at C.H.S.

Posting a 13-5 win-loss record, the baby Truckers proved to be one of the most successful athletic teams during the past school year. Under the tutelage of Coach Bolton, the J. V. Basketball team was outstanding in sportsmanship and skill. By defeating many of the Eastern District's better junior varsity teams, the junior quintet displayed dexterity in ballhandling and individual scoring. Next year's varsity basketball team will benefit greatly from the performance of this year's J. V.'s.

Elmer Casteen, who contributed twenty-eight points to the team score, won the Most Valuable Wrestler Trophy. Runner-up Tommy Warren contributed twenty-three points. With the type of effort, as displayed by these two boys, wrestling at C.H.S. can look forward to improved teams in the future.

TRACK

This year, Coaches Burgess, Fearing, and Bray drew heavily from the resources of Charles Aligood and Artie Lester as milers, Tom Knowles in the shot and discus, Hugh Adams in the high jump, and Ted Bowen in the pole vault. Ever since January, the track team has worked hard to perfect their skills in the numerous track and field events. With a host of new prospects and a great deal of perserverance on the part of the entire team, the harriers of C.H.S. furthered the Trucker spirit on the cinders.

GOLF TEAM

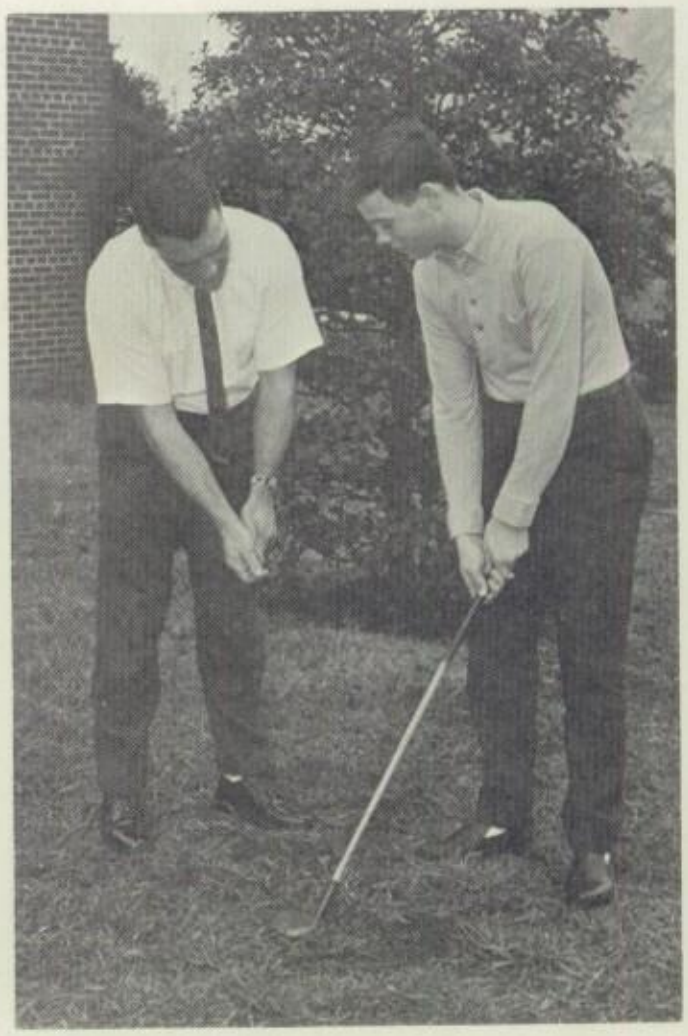
GOLF

With six returning lettermen, golf prospects indeed looked bright for C.H.S. Led by Coach Smith and with outstanding performances by Jim Brown, Paul McRae, Butch Liebler, and Mike Wynn, the team endeavored to attain the State Championship for 1962. Having posted eight wins, including a victory over State Champion Virginia Beach, and only one loss last year, the Truckers entered the State Meet only to be runner-up to a team which they had beaten earlier during the season. With the possibility of winning the Championship in mind, these "future golf pros" did much to advance the spirit of C.H.S.

SCHEDULE
April 3	Hampton, Cradock, Ferguson
April 10	Maury, Princess Anne, Wilson
April 13	Wilson, Granby
May 1	Norview, Warwick
May 4	Wilson, Newport News
May 11	Eastern District Meet
May 18, 19	State Meet



Coach Joe Smith helps Paul McRae to perfect his grip.

TENNIS

This year the Trucker tennis team began its season operating under a new coach, Mr. Lichock, and with Roger Burbage as Number One Man. With few returning lettermen, the team had to depend a great deal of the time on the desire and determination of the team. With a schedule that provided many formidable opponents, the team offered opposition of the highest quality that made it a team to be reckoned with.

Roger Burbage, Number One Player, and Coach Lichok.

TENNIS TEAM

SCHEDULE
March 27	Suffolk
March 30	Ferguson
April 3	Norview
April 6	Maury
April 10	Granby
April 13	Warwick
April 27	Princess Anne
May 1	Wilson
May 4	Cradock
May 8	Great Bridge

Linda,
Remember all the fun
we had on the bus last year. This year I have seen so little of you. It seems I hardly know
you. Lets try to keep our friendship strong
Stay as nice as you
are. Love ya,
Carolyn

Dear Linda:
Well I've been trying so hard to sign your album for so long now and finely got it back. Can't think of anything to say except it's been nice knowing you & I hope you have a nice summer & be good.
Love ya
Anne Seidenwood
